HSBC Mauritius Curepipe to open on Wednesday 24 March 2021

To serve customers with restricted movement within the red zone areas in upper Plaine Wilhems, our Curepipe Branch will open for business from 09:30hrs to 15:00hrs, effective 24 March 2021.

HSBC Place d'Armes Branch in Port Louis remains open for business.

Customers visiting the above branches will have access to the following services:

- Cash withdrawals
- Cash and cheque deposits at counter as well as at the branch ATM
- Corporate Deposits
- Enquiries

All other branches will remain closed until further notice. We regret any inconvenience caused.

In line with the enacted health and sanitary protocols, access to above branches will be allowed in alphabetical order by surname as follows:

- A to F on Mondays and Thursdays
- G to N on Tuesdays and Fridays
- O to Z on Wednesdays and Saturdays

Visiting customers will have their body temperature checked before being allowed in the branch.

All HSBC ATMs across the country remain fully operational and will be regularly replenished.

All payments and salary credits will be processed onto customers' accounts on normal working days. HSBC retail and corporate customers are being directed to the bank's online platforms for their banking needs and encouraged not to venture out.

HSBC will continue to monitor the situation closely and respond accordingly.
