HSBC Mauritius and VISA's co-branded Platinum and Gold Cards lucky draw promotion winners announced

HSBC is pleased to announce the lucky winners of the co-branded HSBC Visa Platinum launch promotion, which was run from 14 August to 31 October 2020.

Mr. Kevin Ghoora, Mr Michael Kelvyn Yap San Min and Mrs. Marie Noelle Claudette Laguette are the fortunate customers who have won a cash prize of Rs.100,000 each.

To officially mark the launch of the HSBC Visa Platinum Credit Card, HSBC, in collaboration with Visa, leveraged a promotion whereby any cardholder activating and using their credit card for payment would get entries to the draw as follows; 50 entries per card activated and 1 entry per Rs.1000 spent.

The announcement was made to them on 24 December, following the lucky draw held on 23 December at the Mauritius Turf Club.

Bonnie Qiu, CEO of HSBC Mauritius met with the lucky draw winners at HSBC's Headquarters in Ebene, to congratulate them and to thank them for using HSBC credit cards as a preferred means of payment for their spending.

"I am very pleased to note that you have been using HSBC's Platinum and Gold VISA cards for your holiday shopping and staycations. Our cards are now equipped with enhanced technology features for increased security and expedient shopping experiences. Our aim is to bring the best in class service level to all our customers."

Commenting on the lucky draw campaign, Nitin Ramlugon , Head of Wealth and Personal Banking at HSBC said:

“HSBC is committed to serve our customers by continuously enhancing our credit card value proposition. Our new Visa Platinum credit card provides extra protection, extended warranty and gives access to exquisite offers worldwide. Furthermore, our cards are equipped with chip and contactless technology and provides a more secure, faster and convenient shopping experience.”
